

Call for Papers

NIRMA presents
2010 Information Management Conference
August 15 – 18, 2010
J.W. Marriott Resort and Spa at Summerlin, Nevada

The NIRMA Conference team invites you to participate as a speaker in the technical program for NIRMA's 34th Annual Conference. If you would like to take advantage of this opportunity, please submit a 100 to 150-word abstract of the paper you wish to present. Abstracts must be submitted by February 26, 2010, preferably via email, to the Technical Program Coordinator:

Steve Adams
 Email: Steve.Adams@nara.gov
 Phone: (505) 248-7555
 Fax: (505) 248-7556

Selection of papers will be based on the description provided in the abstract. Notification of acceptance will be made in March 2009. If your abstract is accepted, you will be required to submit publication-ready electronic and hard copy versions of your paper no later than May 21, 2010.

Papers should focus on topics and issues associated with the business environment that supports nuclear and other highly regulated industries such as waste management, power generation, governmental programs, and process safety management. Technical presentations (either a single-hour session, or a series of progressive or multiple-part presentations requiring greater than one hour), workshops, and round table or panel discussions will be considered, especially those that provide solutions using information management and/or technologies as an integral part of the solution. Papers focusing on the experiences implementing such solutions are desired, and will be given preference. Of particular interest are papers on knowledge management, cyber security and PDF/A.
